ARREST OF A FEMALE SPY .- On Friday last he detectives of Gen. Winder's office arrested. at the residence of Rev. M. D. Hoge, in this city, Mrs. Mary J. Allan, on the charge of communicating information to the enemy. It appears that about a week or ten days since Mrs. Allan sent, by a blockade runner, who was proceeding to Baltimore, two or three letters, one of which was directed to Rev. Morgan Dix, son of Gen. Dix, of the Yankee army, and another to her sister, at Cincinnati. The blockade runner fortunately opened the letters, and in reading them discovered that they contained various revelations intended for the information of the enemy. He promptly returned to the city and delivered the letters to tien. Winder, who immediately caused Mrs. Allan to be placed under duress. His purpose, we are informed, was to transfer her to Castle Thunder, but higher authority having interposed, as alleged, she was sent to St. Francis de Sales Hospital, on Brooke Avenue, where she is now detained under guard.

Mrs. Allan is the wife of Patterson Allan, of this city, and is therefore connected by marriage with one of the most respectable families of Richmond.
